

“Some people would do nearly anything to get rid of Tom Fink.”

There's no doubt about it, the people who want to raise taxes in Anchorage do not always get along particularly well with Tom Fink. Then they complain that it's his fault and say he can't get along with people. Actually, Tom Fink gets along just fine with most people.

Most Anchorage residents want to maintain essential government services, reduce spending and hold the line against tax increases – which is exactly what Tom Fink has accomplished during his first term. Keep up the good work, Mayor!

Re-elect Mayor Tom Fink, a good man doing a good job.
