

Why would anyone want to weaken what we've worked so hard for?

Even though individual Alaskans may not always agree all the time on every issue, we do join together and agree a lot more often than we disagree. That's why we have the benefits of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline; the Permanent Fund; the 200-mile fishing limit to protect our fisheries; and that's

Proven, Experienced Leadership to Protect Alaska

why our lives are better with new and upgraded roads, airports, docks and harbors; as well as improvements in public sanitation, sewer and water.

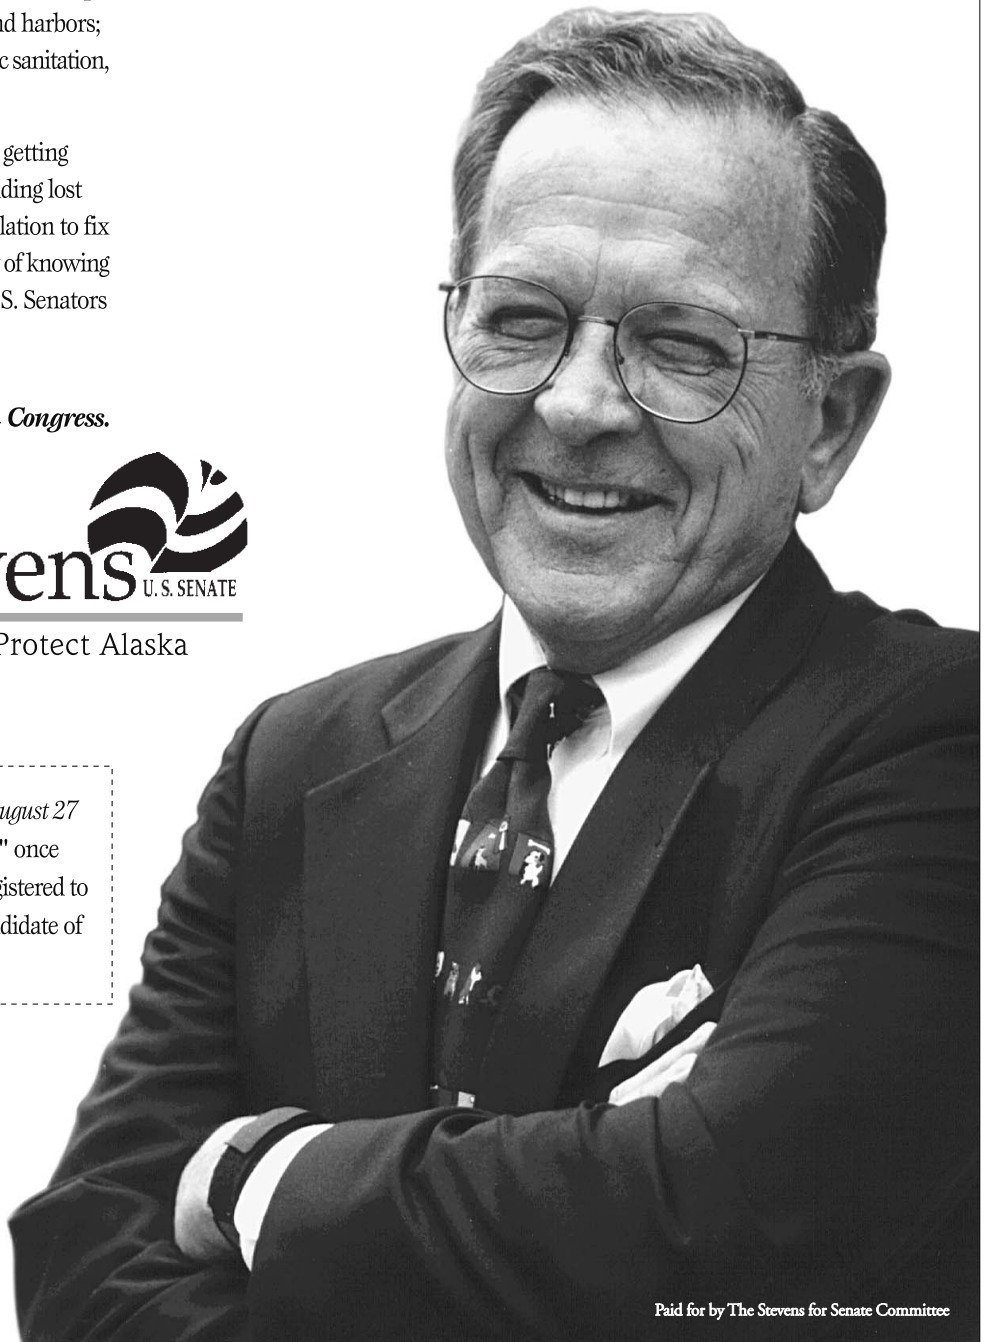

And when Alaskans need help getting government to listen – from finding lost military records to passing legislation to fix a problem – we have the security of knowing we have one of the strongest U.S. Senators in the country.

Help keep Alaska strong in Congress.

Ted Stevens  U.S. SENATE

Strong Leadership to Protect Alaska
